↳ Our Story ↲

The Maple Counter Cafe is the proud result of three consecutive generations of restaurant expertise. Beginning with my grandparents' restaurant in Chicago's south side over 45 years ago, the artful skill of handcrafting breakfasts and lunches has become a family tradition. Inspired by my parents' restaurant, The Oak Table Cafe in Sequim, WA, my wife Rachel and I sought to open a family institution that reflects our passion for food and hospitality in the community we happily call home. In our quest to create a business which smiles on the world, we maintain that there is no substitute for quality or kindness. At the Maple Counter Cafe, great pride is taken in creating a memorable experience, with close attention paid to the food, and especially to the customer.

The Maple Counter Cafe team understands that preparing good food takes time and special care.

With matched dedication, we start at dawn every day making numerous batters from authentic, coveted recipes that hold true to our heritage in this industry.

Our batters are not from packaged mixes; all are carefully blended by hand using fresh, ingredients, such as flour locally grown and milled here in Walla Walla, as well as fresh eggs, heavy cream, and the like.

Then there is our heirloom sourdough starter. This old-fashioned process of nurturing yeast has been handed down through generations, and is the magic that makes our pancakes light and fine textured. All of our syrups and toppings for our pancakes, crepes, and omelets are delicately prepared from scratch-recipes.

Butter is a keystone of our operation. Through a careful clarification process, we render out it's impurities (salts and solids), until left with a pure "golden oil" which we use in many of our signature dishes, including the fabulous basted egg. Our whipped butter is simply that - nothing more, nothing less.

We have created our own blend of local coffee to complement your meal, and we serve it with real whipping cream. Our lemonade, orange, and grapefruit juices are freshly squeezed in our kitchen every day.

The use of locally sourced ingredients is a priority at The Maple Counter Cafe, better serving you and our great community. By incorporating items such as locally baked breads, fresh produce from local farmers, locally grown and milled flour, and quality meats from Walla Walla and the surrounding countryside, we are ensuring a freshness you can taste.

We at the Maple Counter Cafe thank you for your patronage and invite you to relax, and enjoy your experience. Our family is grateful to have you.

-Kory and Rachel Nagler
